Please join us as we honor Stewart's legacy of community support at the 7th annual Fiesta Finale Gala, the evening of August 6th, at the Santa Barbara County Courthouse. This will be the best one ever! The Profant Foundation For the Arts is offering you the first opportunity to reserve patron tickets for this event. Special Rancheros Visitadores tables will be reserved and preferred seating for those who are underwriting this elegant evening. Proceeds from the Gala fund the organization's many scholarship programs. Sponsors will be honored with a trumpeter's fanfare and a special presentation at the event. How thrilling this will be!

We look forward to seeing you!

Katherine Abercrombie, Honorary Chair and the Fiesta Finale Gala Committee

A bit of the legacy... For years, history buff, rancher, investor, and Rancheros Visitadores President Stewart Abercrombie, his wife Lilian, and their 5 children - Gildee, Stewart, Patricia, Nell, and Molly - rode in the Fiesta Parades. Two years after Lilian's death, the Mayor of Palm Springs arranged for Stewart to meet his friend, Katherine. The two fell in love, married, and together shared many wonderful memories. When Stewart mentioned that he had never been able to watch the Fiesta Parade (since he had always been in it), Katherine packed a picnic, and invited friends to join in. She now invites you to be a key part of this magical season! Please refer to the many options on page two.
