PRESS RELEASE Santa Barbara, CA.

The Profant Foundation for the Arts announces their 10th anniversary celebration with a Fiesta Finale Gala on August 8, 2010 , 5:30 pm - 10:00 pm at El Paseo Restaurant.

Enjoy the historic ambiance of old El Paseo Restaurant and the elegance of a new chef, cuisine, and couture... .

Join us to honor Fiesta traditions in grand style.

The black-tie event will include a fiesta costume contest, gourmet dinner, dancing, a performance of Spanish dance remembering Jose Manero, tango from Santa Barbara Dance Center, a parade of folkloric masks with members of the State Street Ballet Summer Intensive program, fiery Flamenco with Timo Nunez and Pamela Laurant, and dancing to the Martinez Brothers, 2nd Generation to perform at El Paseo. More event details are included in the attached invitation (pdf).

The Profant Foundation is a non-profit 501c3 organization which has given over $250,000 to local developing artists of all ages making it possible for them to, for example, publish a book...sing in Europe...intern as a dancer in New York...

complete a solo art exhibit...attend a writer's conference...

During the past ten years, with the help of many people in the community, the organization has also offered several exhibits and performances for arts education, published a book and created a ballet that will fund future scholarships. To support this cause and enjoy an elegant fiesta event visit www.profant.org or call 805-682-8185 for gala tickets at $150 each or to reserve a special booth.
